2020 High School “Discover Architecture!” Program Application

The Center for Architecture in conjunction with the American Institute of Architects New York is pleased to offer a program for current New York City high school students interested in learning more about the field of architecture. Selected participants will have the opportunity to gain valuable experience and on-site learning at a local architecture firm.

The Discover Architecture! program will be held during the 2020 NYC public school mid-winter break, and selected students will attend sessions from 10am – 3pm, Tuesday, February 18th through Friday, February 21st. A mandatory orientation will be held on Monday, February 10th from 4:30 – 5:30pm.

Eligible students must be in their sophomore or junior year of high school in New York City. We are looking for students who are most interested and/ or who would most benefit from this opportunity. While no prior experience is necessary, an interest in architecture or art is a plus.
